GRATEFUL THROUGH IT ALL:

Nicole is especially thankful for YOU!
Your compassion & support change lives.
Nicole was a sad and anxious little girl, overwhelmed by her emotions. “I struggled with really intense feelings that nobody else could understand,” she says. “I started seeing a counselor when I was 12 and was diagnosed with anxiety and depression at 17.”

She was placed on disability and prescribed medications. But they didn’t work, and she began numbing her pain with alcohol. For more than 20 years, Nicole struggled with depression and addiction, unable to develop healthy relationships with her children or engage with life. “Instead of embracing the things that were good for me—family, education, jobs—I didn’t want anything to do with them. I resented them,” she says.

Finally, she’d had enough. She was desperate for a different kind of life than she’d been living. “I said, ‘I can’t give in to the anxiety and depression anymore.’ I was ready to do whatever it took to change.”

It was then she turned to our Higher Ground addiction recovery program for help. Through mental health counseling, Nicole was placed on medication that effectively treats her depression and anxiety. “I finally found stability in my life,” she says.

Chapel services and Bible studies led her to surrender her life to the Lord. And biblical counseling and life-skills classes have taught her how to engage with life and build healthy relationships with her children. “I’ve learned social skills, job skills, how to maintain my sobriety, and how to stay in community,” she says. “Now, I know how to care for and value my relationships with others and with God.”

Nicole graduated and went into our Equip program, further strengthening her faith while serving other guests within our ministry. “I really appreciate helping others,” she says.

As Nicole celebrates this Thanksgiving, she feels incredibly thankful for your compassion, prayers, and support—and how it’s given her a fresh start. “Now I have a deep appreciation of people and of life.”

“I never realized life could be this good or fulfilling.”

“I was lost, but now I’m filled with hope.”
It might surprise you that in another year filled with hardships and uncertainty, the overwhelming messages I hear are ones of gratitude and hope.

Despite the challenges we still face as a community—or perhaps because of them—we remain connected to each other in a spirit of love and generosity. Your care and compassion have never been more evident here at Wheeler Mission than right now, as we prepare for the Thanksgiving season.

You have stepped up to help our hurting neighbors as God has called us to do. You’ve provided nourishing meals, safe shelter, and biblically-based guidance. More than that, you’ve prayed for our ministry and guests and encouraged others to join our mission to transform lives. Your love has made it possible for hearts to be restored and lives rebuilt. Now that’s something to celebrate!

As we count our blessings this Thanksgiving, you and other faithful friends are at the top of my list. As you enjoy the holiday season with your loved ones, both near and far away, I pray God will fill your heart with joy, peace, and the comfort of knowing that lives have been changed thanks to your kindness.

I am grateful for you—today and every day. God bless!

A Reason to Celebrate

It was a momentous day for our ministry. A day filled with gratitude and joy. On August 11, 2021, we dedicated our expanded Center for Women & Children!

This special day marked the beginning of our ability to care for more women and children than ever before in our history. Many more lives will be impacted because of your generous and loving support to reach hurting neighbors in need.

Thank you to all who joined us on this special day of celebration for all that God is doing in our community!
